SHERIFF EDWARD N. BONNER RELEASES THE FOLLOWING:

Placer County Sheriff's deputies responded to a residence in the Bowman area of Auburn after the Nevada County Sheriff's Office requested we arrest a subject at that location for domestic violence crimes that occurred in Nevada County. The subject armed himself with a handgun and barricaded himself in a bedroom when contacted by Placer County Sheriff's deputies. He later surrendered himself after negotiations with Placer County deputies and special team members.

At 1620 hours, Placer County Sheriff's Deputies responded to the 300 block of Channel Hill Road in Auburn at the request of the Nevada County Sheriff's Office. Nevada County detectives advised Placer deputies that an occupant of the residence, Ryan Gardinier, age 28 years, was wanted in their jurisdiction for 273.5 PC-Domestic Violence and 236 PC- False Imprisonment. They asked that we arrest the suspect for those crimes. When deputies contacted Gardinier, he displayed a handgun and barricaded himself in a bedroom. Patrol deputies formed a perimeter around the residence and evacuated nearby neighbors.

Deputies began negotiations with the suspect. The Special Enforcement Team (SET) and the Hostage Negotiations Team (HNT) responded to the location. HNT continued talking with the suspect while SET assumed control of the perimeter around the house. Deputies learned the suspect had armed himself with a rifle as well as the handgun.

The suspect surrendered to SET after extended negotiations with HNT. He was taken into custody by Placer County Sheriff's SET team members and transported to the Wayne Brown Correctional Facility in Nevada County.
